

CANTON at Sea, April 29th, 1838
Captain J. Mordaunt

Dear Sir,

Anticipating our speedy arrival at Port Adelaide, we beg to return you our sincere thanks for the courtesy and kindness we have experienced from you since we came on board. We feel especially grateful for that vigilant exercise of your nautical skill, which, by inspiring confidence, has relieved us from much of the anxiety naturally incident to our situation. Should we reach our desired harbour in safety, one of our warmest wishes will be for your happy return to the bosom of your family.

And if at some future period Providence should bring you again to the shores of our adopted country, be assured, Dear Sir, you will meet with a hearty welcome from,

Your sincere Friends,

David WYLIE Letter from passengers to Captain John Mordaunt, M.A.

John NEWMAN,

Henry Jonas WATSON,

M.A. WATSON,

M. WATSON,

R. M. ROBSON,

Samuel GILLARD, H. H. GILLARD,

E. GILLMAN

Captain William SCOTT, Mary SCOTT,

B P WINTER,

Ann SCOTT, Josephine, NEWMAN,

Mary Caroline NASH,

Elizabeth WYLIE,

Harriett, WATSON,

Eliza Ann ROBSON, James George NASH,