J. Sand
 Testator

in the year of our lord god one thousand five hundred and thye And in the year of the Reigne of our soveraigne lord James by the grace of god King of England France and Ireland defender of the faith etc the first And of Scotland the seaven and thirtieth J: Jane Mordaunte of westbury in the County of Buckingham widow late wife of Robert Mordaunte Esquire deceased being in the minde and good memorie, praised be almightie god, doe ordaine and make this my last will and testament in manner and forme followinge first I protest from my harte that renouncing all Error schismes and heresies I doe firmly and without all doubt hold and believe the xpiam faith and every parte and pointe thereof as our mother the holie Catholique church instructed by the promised spirite of truth hath taught and declared And in that faith I most hopefully and joyfully surrender my soule into the mercifull handes of my almightie createur, trusting assuredly by the infinite mercy of his deare sonne Iesus Christ our onely redeemer and saviour and by his precious bloud soe abundantly shed for me to be made a partaker of his everlastinge Kingdome, my soule his body I be take to the earth wherof it is made, and to be buried in xpiam buryall as my Excutors and other my good frendes shall appointe, Item I give to the churchwardens of westbury towards the repaire of westbury church fortie shillinges Item I give to the poore to be distributed the daie of my buriall the somme of fortie shillinges Item I give and bequeath unto my cosen Lesstrange Mordaunte Esquire the bason and ewer of silver with gilt that I delivred unto my cosen Emamell Chamonde, And my will further is that the saide Bason and ewer shall remaine unto the heires of the saide Lesstrange Item I give unto my cosen Margaret Mordaunte wife of my cosen Lesstrange one ringe that sometime had deatys head upon it, And my best gowne and best kirtle a waistcoate and a stomacher Item I give unto Jane Mordaunte my god daughter my hooded ringe of gould I give unto Katherine my woman and all my linnen. All the rest of my goodes chattells and leases unbequeathed I give and bequeath unto Randall Dorne and Katherine Dorne some and daughter of my brother Dorthe Tartilian Dorne to be equally divided betwene them, after my Excutors have paid my debts legacies and funerall expence, The saide legacies bequeathed unto the saide Katherine Dorne to be delivered unto her at the daie of her marriage, if she shall marrie with the consent and good likinge of her uncle Lesstrange Mordaunte and his wife, And if the saide Katherine Dorne shall marrie her self contrary to the consent and good likinge of the saide Lesstrange Mordaunte and his wife, then my will is that the saide legacies unto her bequeath ed shall be void and shall fullie remaine unto her brother Randall Dorne, And my will is that the legacie bequeathed unto Randall Dorne shall be delivered unto him at the full age of twentie years, in the meane tyme the saide legacie bequeathed unto the saide Randall Dorne and Katherine Dorne shall remaine in the custodie of my Excutors towards their duration and bringinge up, And my will is that all the Reasonage of Hempsted shall happen to be recovered as parte of my chattells then the saide Randall Dorne and Katherine Dorne shall give unto every of their sisters twentie nobles in money Item I give my bay mare and foale withinge upon her unto my cosen Robert Mordaunte, And to his brother Henrie a ringe of the value of twentie shillinges, And to his sister Anne Mordaunte a ringe of the like value, Item my will is that if the saide Randall Dorne or Katherine Dorne shall departe this world before their legacies shall be due unto them, that then the bequest of him or her dying shall remaine unto the survivor of them. And if it shall happen the saide Randall and Katherine to departe this world before their portions shall arrive unto them, then my will is that their portions shall remaine unto the children of my cosen Lesstrange And to the other children of my saide brother Dorthe Dorne to be equally divided amongst them, Item I doe ordaine and make Excutors of this my last will and testament my wellbelovd frendes John Nicolls gent and Robert Hopper of westbury Mordaunte gent to see this my will performed as my trust is in them And I doe give and bequeath unto either of them for their paines takinge
